Waterboy, the four-year-old colt, by Watercress-Zealandia, owned by J. B. Haggin and winner of the Suburban Renewal, was victorious in the Brighton Handicap yesterday, and incidentally hung up a new world's record of 2:03 1-5 for a mile and a quarter. When the great Gold Heels won this race last year and ran the distance in 2:03 4-5, with 126 pounds up, turfmen said it would be a long time before these figures would be lowered. But Waterboy, carrying 124 pounds, beat the record, and did it in a manner that will be handed down in turf annals as a phenomenal per-

Waterboy was not put under the whip for a moment by Odom; neither was he driven with hand and heel right up to the wire. On the contrary, he was well in hand, and had something left when he flashed past the judges' stand with a good length to spare. There was just one period in the race that Waterboy was put to the test, and that was when Odom called on him to go up to the Mexican Stable's Roehampton, the five-year-old son of Bathampton-Agnes Flash, who, by the way, ran a race that exceeded the fondest hopes.

It was then that Waterboy showed what a suberb racehorse he is, for with gigantic strides, so easily and gracefully taken that it seemed to be no exertion for him at all, the Watercress colt caught the pacemaker at the head of the stretch, toyed with him for a short distance and then drew away. Roehampton, who was energetically ridden by Bullman, finished eight lengths before Perry Belmont's light-weighted River Pirate, who, under the whip, was a length tefore Oom Paul.

The pace was terrific from the start The quarter was run in 0:23 2-5, the half in 0:47 1-5, the five furlongs in 0:59, the three-quarters in 1:12 2-5, the seven furlongs in 1:25 4-5 and the mile in 1:39 flat. It was in the last half mile that Roehampton's pinned their faith to the former cripple and had wen.

The Punchestown Steeplechase produced another successful favorite, J. W. Colt's Lavator. He was heavily backed at 3 to 2, with a play on Rising Sun that reduced him to 6 to 1 and caused Tip Galiant to recede to 11 to 5. It was a long struggle for the lead between Lavator, Mara up, and broke the record in the Brighton Handicap I was quite sure that no horse would be able to lower those figures for a long time to come, and I did not believe that Waterboy would do it to-day. But he did, and he probably could have run in 2.03 flat if it had been necessary to drive him home. He ran kindly all the way, and when the time came to make a move to the front he was there with all four feet. You can say for me that Waterboy is a racing wonder."

The most remarkable fact about Waterboy is that he was believed to be a hopeless cripple last year when, just before the running of the Balmont Stakes at Morris Park.

boy is that he was believed to be a hopeless cripple last year when, just before the running of the Belmont Stakes, at Morris Park, he broke his shoulder. At first it was thought he would have to be destroyed. but a well-known veterinary begged for a chance to save him. The request was granted, and Waterboy was suspended in a sling for three months to give the bone a chance to knit. The horse did not move and lost both flosh and vitality, but at the care at his mercy. He went straight to the front and stayed there to the head of the stretch, where the pace began to tell and Bullman went to the bat. As the Bel Demonio colt hung in his stride, Burns care up from behind with Tim Payne. and lost both flesh and vitality, but at the came up from behind with Tim Payne, end of that time the veterinary pronounce d the shoulder as strong as ever, and the son of Watercress was turned out. He did not stand training until this year, however, and from the very start he displayed form that convinced turfmen that Mr. Haggin had another Watercolor, and they were more than right, for Waterboy is a greater horse in every respect than Watercolor ever was.

After yesterday's phenomenal performance Waterboy pulled up as sound as a dollar. He was breathing nor mally, and after he had been cooled out in the paddock sheds he was led away for a sumptuous supper.

There could not have been a more popular victory. It seemed as if ever ybody bet on Waterboy. He opened at 8 to 5, and the books were quickly besieged by men who wagered sums ranging from $2 up to $1,000 on the Watercress colt. The big plungers, as usual, held off, so that the rank and file of form players and those who always back favorites had a royal winning.

But with this flood of money the price against Waterboy went up gradually, until there was as much as 2½ to 1 against him, although the general closing quotation was 2 to 1. This was due to a heavy plunge on Foxhall Keene's Injunction, who was ridden by W. C. Whitney's $40,000 jockey, ridden by W. C. Whitney's $40,000 jockey, Arthur Redfern, the odds falling from 610 1 to 7 to 2. Then there was a wild rush to get aboard L. V. Bell's Francesco, who was a hot tip and who, while the horses were at the post, was beaten down to threes. The others went begging, so to speak, and after the race it was estimated that the ring paid out close to $100,000 on Waterboy.

It was a typical Brighton day. The sun was melting hot, but there was a cooling breeze from the ocean, which made the top of the big cantilever stand a popular vantage point. Even with 2,000 additional seats the stand was jammed so that the Pinkertons had a hard time to keep the aisles clear. It was the same in the field stand, while the betting ring was hotter than the bowels of the earth. When the horses went to the post for the handicap, which was worth $16,790 to the winner, there were nearly 30,000 men and women present, the broad, sunbaked lawn being covered with a straw-hat brigade as far as the eye could reach. As was expected, Africander, the champion three-year-old, was scratched because of his hard race in the Realization on Tuesday and so were Col. Bill, Blues, Igniter, Daly and Glenwater. P. J. Dwyer, however, added the three-year-old Merry Acrobat, who carried 100 pounds including five pounds overweight, in order to allow Michaels to have the mount. This made a field of ten to face the starter. The barrier was sized as the back of the

This made a field of ten to face the starter. The barrier was rigged at the head of the new chute, beyond the field stand, and from the inner rail positions were assigned to the horses in this manner: Merry Acrobat, River Pirate, Oom Paul, Waterboy, Articulate, Hunter Raine, Injunction, Roehampton, Francesco, and Herbert on the extreme outside. It was a few minutes after 4 o'clock when Starter C. J. Fitzgerald got them where he wanted them and let the barrier go.

"They're off!" roared the sweltering crowd, in a frenzy of excitement. There was a wild scramble, and the dancing colors were soon jumbled into an indistinguishable mass.

were soon jumbled into an indistinguishable mass. There was a straining of eyes and a craning of necks in an attempt to make out the leader.

Cochran rushed Oom Paul to the front real cowboy style. In doing so he cut feetly across Articulate, who was knocked his knocked to his knees, and little Larson fell headlong bader the boofs of the flying thorough-breds. Women shrieked and turned away. Men turned pale and cried out in horror, for it seemed as if the boy could not escape with his life.

When the horses had rushed on, followed by the riderless Articulate, Larson lay still in the middle of the dusty track. Several spectators and bluecoats picked him up and carried him to a spot on the grass inside the

As they reached the lower turn in this order Injunction. River Pirate and Hunter Raine were trailing along in the dust cloud, apparently out of it. Entering the back stretch Oom Paul continued to lead at top speed, but Burns had rushed Herbert up to him, while Odom had dropped back into third place with the favorite. Bullman, too, was making rapid progress with Rochampton, who was fighting for his head and looking dangerous, even at this early stage. Francesco was certainly short, for the reason that he had not been to the races before this year, and was soon in trouble.

Herbert at three-quarters of a mile had run Oom Paul to a head, and together they raced on like a team, with Roehampton and Waterboy not more than a length and a half away. Then Bullman concluded to make a critical move with Roehampton, and boldly took him to the front. On the far turn the son of Bathampton had a lead of a length and a half, and was running at a tremendous clip. Herbert collapsed, but Oom Paul, passed by Waterboy, hung on.

"Come on, Waterboy!" the crowd yelled frantically. "Come on! Now's the time!"

As if heeding the advice of the populace Odom let the son of Watercress have his head. With a dozen long, easy strides the favorite bounded up to Roehampton's quarter just as they rounded into the stretch. Bullman drew his whip and with mighty arm laid the punishment on mighty arm laid the punishment on without mercy. Roehampton, game to the core, struggled on, but behind him came the thundering hoofs of Waterboy, who loomed up in all his greatness like an overpowering cyclope.

"Waterboy!" It was a cry that made the horse prick up his ears and go on with a final mighty burst of speed that carried him to victory and to a new world's record. The really smart bettors went to Archie Zimmer's Homestead, who was at fives and was ridden by Fuller, just back from a visit to Chicago. Irish Jewel and Tribes Hill also caught liberal backing.

Baikal, a 25 to 1 shot, ran away from his field, opening up a gap of half a dozen lengths going up the backstretch. But Homestead never let up in his stern chase, and at the turn he caught the Patton gelding without much trouble, coming on afterward to an easy victory by two lengths in 1:46 4-5. Baikal finished in the place, a length and a half before Past, 12 to 1, who was a head in front of Tribes Hill. Agnes D. was left at the post.

Newton Bennington made himself felt in the ring when his Candlemas horse, Royal, won the fifth race, for platers at six furlongs. Royal opened at 6 to 1, but Mr. Bennington and his friends soon made him favorite at 16 to 5. Frank Farrell's ugly tempered King Pepper, who had opened the choice at threes, went up to fours, while Young Henry. Syrlin and Interval attracted the rest of the money. King Pepper, who was left at the post in his last race at Sheepshead Bay, repeated the trick, standing still when the field was sent away. Earl of Warwick was practically left, too.

STEINHARDT HAS A RACETRACK COP ARRESTED.

What For? Neglect of Duty in Not Nabbing Gamblers—Just a Lesson, Steinhardt Says, for the Regular Police-Hints at Charge Against One "Higher Up."

Shortly after the fourth race was run at the Brighton Beach racetrack yesterday afternoon, a Brooklyn cop walked into the betting ring and arrested a Pinkerton man on a charge of "violating Section 117 of the Penal Code," which says that a public officer who wilfully neglects to perform any duty enjoined upon him is guilty of a misdemeanor. The duty alleged in this case was the suppressing of gambling on the Sheepshead Bay race-

The news of the arrest spread rapidly among racing men and they soon learned that Lawyer Benjamin Steinhardt of the firm of Howe & Hummel had been instrumental in bringing it about. Others declared that he had been retained by "Pittsburg Phil," whose entries have been barred. Still others circulated a story that he was acting for Peter DeLacy, who for years had battled against the racetrack folk because they wanted to shut out the poolroom gamblers.

The man who was taken into custody was John Butteles, long employed by the Pinkerton agency, and the arrest was made on a warrant issued by Magistrate Tighe of Brooklyn. Magistrate Tighe went to the track to see that the warrant was served. The complainant named in the case is Harry Millionaire Turfman Sweeps the Card at Goldman, a subpoena server, employed in Howe & Hummel's office, who lives at 151 Bridge street, Brooklyn. He accompanied the cop and the Magistrate, and they found Brighton Beach yesterday was the fact that the winners of all six events were bred by Butteles in front of the stand on which Sol Lichtenstein was making book.

"The question arose whether a racetrack policeman was a public officer. Section 10 of the Percy-Gray law makes him a public officer. Under this law the trustees of a racetrack have power to appoint five or more officers, whose duty is to preserve order, and who 'shall see that the rules are obeyed.'
